

We prepare you for real airline life from day one

About IFA

We are one of Portugal's leading aviation academies, offering the widest range of certified aviation training programs. Our expertise covers every stage of an aviation career, from initial training to advanced professional qualifications.

Professional Aviation Training You Can Trust

We deliver high-quality, EASA-approved training to the next generation of aviation professionals.

- 26+ years of experience training cabin crew and flight professionals
- 4000+ graduates successfully trained
- Competitive and exclusive pricing
- One of the shortest cabin crew courses in Portugal
- Highly qualified, industry-experienced instructors
- Consistently high training standards

The First Step Towards Your Airline Career

Travel the world with our Initial Cabin Crew Course, designed to prepare you for a successful airline career. This EASA-approved program leads to the European Cabin Crew Attestation, recognized across the European Union.

You will gain essential aviation knowledge, safety expertise, and professional skills to confidently begin your journey as cabin crew.

Your First Destination: World-Class Training Facilities

At IFA, you will learn from highly trained and experienced instructors with real airline backgrounds. Our team provides practical insights into airline recruitment processes and career preparation, giving you a competitive advantage in the aviation job market.

Comprehensive Practical Training

You will benefit from hands-on training in mock-up cabins, firefighting facilities, and realistic emergency scenarios, preparing you to respond confidently in any situation.

The training includes:

- Safety and emergency procedures
- First aid and passenger care
- Incident prevention and response
- Airline operational standards

All manuals and training materials are included to ensure your success.

More than a career, a lifestyle. As cabin crew, you will discover new destinations, cultures, and cities while building a dynamic international career.

Where Our Graduates Fly

Our training opens doors! Graduates from cabin crew course are currently flying with leading European and international airlines, reflecting the quality, professionalism, and airline-focused structure of our training.

